Regulations

1.0 Attorney Consultation

If an ASI employee or board member suspects that legal consultation may be necessary or desirable, he or she should contact the Executive Director and briefly outline the matter giving rise to the concern. The Executive Director will initially determine if the matter requires legal consultation. If the matter does not require legal consultation, the Executive Director will provide the necessary information to allow the matter to be resolved internally. If the matter does warrant legal consultation, the initial contact with an attorney regarding ASI business shall be made only by or with the specific authorization of the Executive Director.

1.1 Preferred Method of Contact

Whenever possible, contacts with the attorney shall be in writing with a copy of all correspondence sent to the Executive Director. The Office of the Executive Director will be the clearinghouse for all attorney contacts. Attorneys shall be requested to provide a written response with a copy to the Executive Director within a reasonable time. Although the time needed will vary with the complexity of the question, or questions, involved, a specific time for the response should be indicated whenever possible.

1.2 Content of Consultation

When consulting with the attorney, ASI staff shall convey ASI's expectations that the responses from the attorney will summarize the problem, summarize the applicable laws, give the consequences of the various alternatives, and give a specific recommendation on the course of action which will be in the best interests of the ASI. ASI staff shall not, and should not be expected to, interpret the law.

1.3 Alternative Legal Consultation

Employees and board members may solicit legal advice from alternative means, such as Internet resources (i.e. government websites), professional membership associations, reference books, etc. Often such resources can provide adequate guidance for handling minor conflicts where legal action is not imminent. However, none of these sources shall be cited as representing the official position of the ASI on any legal issue. ASI’s position on any legal issue shall be represented only by the legal opinions provided by the board appointed attorney.

2.0 Annual Report

A copy of each referral to the attorney will be forwarded to the Executive Director who will keep a record of each legal engagement. Such a record will include the date of engagement, the authorizing official, brief description of the matter, the date of completion, and the cost. The Executive Director shall file a report in June on the year’s activities with respect to use of legal representation.
