

RESTRICTED ACCESS TO CALIFORNIA STATE UNIVERSITY, LONG BEACH DURING COVID-19 PANDEMIC

Until further notice, access to campus property, grounds, and facilities of Cal State Long Beach is restricted to authorized persons only. Authorization to enter the campus, including any campus building or other structure on campus property, requires an essential need for physical access by designated on-duty employees, enrolled students, first responders, or designated entities performing contracted services. All persons seeking to enter the campus must carry with them and provide evidence of such authorization.

Subject to applicable law, authorized persons who enter the campus (including buildings) must comply with the following requirements:

- Complete a pre-entry health screening questionnaire
- The proper wearing of face coverings that cover the mouth and nose.
- Strict adherence to the rules of public distancing (maintaining at least 6 feet of distance between persons, as a means of minimizing the transmission of pathogens).
- Strict compliance with all applicable federal and state laws, directives, and orders regarding the COVID-19 pandemic.

Any member of the public who refuses to comply is subject to expulsion from campus property and/or criminal prosecution for trespassing (CA. PC 602.6).

Please direct any questions about this policy to the University Police Department at:
