- *This date is flexible. May also be used to do a Voting Rights workshop.
- 3) Discussion Item: Senate Meetings for September and October
 Chief Justice Vargas informed the Judiciary that Justice Kirolos was assigned to the Senate meeting on September 21st and Justice Adofina was assigned to October 26th. Justice Vargas will look at other dates and choose from those. Only 4-5 meetings of the semester. Ms. San Miguel suggested that the Senate meetings involving potential bylaw changes will be important for the Justices to attend. The timeline has not been set yet, but it should be in October or early November.
- 4) Discussion Item: 2-3 Committee Meetings
 Chief Justice Vargas stated that committee assignments will be reassigned to even out the distribution between committees.
- 5) Discussion Item: Volunteering at Events
 Chief Justice Vargas explained that the Judiciary needs to increase involvement within ASI. He mentioned possible options for volunteering: going to Kbeach to make announcements, passing out information to clubs & advisors to give to other student orgs.
- 6) Discussion Item: Marketing Tactics
 Chief Justice Vargas will be working with ASI Communications to create the fliers for the Know Your Rights Campaign. Once the fliers are in they will need to be distributed to get the word out about the various workshops. Chief Justice Vargas also mentioned that USUBOT member Natasha Romero reached out to him about the Know Your Rights campaign and a possible collaboration regarding information being added to the student government website. He informed Judiciary that he has already been working on creating content for the website to add a Know Your Rights section to the Judiciary webpages.

7. REPORTS

A. Senate

Justice Olivas reported the following:

- The Senate postponed the election of a Senator-at-Large to reopen the filing period, and Andrea Alonzo was elected to Senator, College of Education
- Some senators discussed working on a resolution to include feminine hygiene products in the ASI Beach Pantry and convert the Student Recreation & Wellness Center single shower stalls into gender inclusive restrooms by preparing a proposal to the USUBOT. They also discussed the rise in the day parking pass that originally was five dollars but increased to seven dollars.
- Treasurer Smith reported on the status of funds and his personal goal to incentivize the financial literacy program.

- Senator Gomez discussed Lobby Corps' voter registration drive that is ongoing and that they are looking for volunteers to help with tabling.
- President Flores reported to the Senate that he is helping to organize and clean out the Greek Office so it can be utilized, Provost Jersky is looking into changing the policy on the unit cap of 14 units to 16 units and working on the "What stands in your way" campaign to assist students with opportunities to help them graduate, creating a university policy webpage, and creating a break time from 12pm-2pm for organizations to meet (activity hour or "college hour").
