

THE SENATE OF THE ASSOCIATED STUDENTS
CALIFORNIA STATE UNIVERSITY, LONG BEACH

Bill Number: SR #2020-28
Title: College Student Inclusion in CARES Act and Support of S. 3489
Sponsored by: Senator-at-Large Jireh Deng
Co-Sponsored by: ASI President Lizbeth Velasquez
Date Submitted: April 22, 2020
Date Approved: May 6, 2020

WHEREAS the Associated Students, Incorporated (ASI) Board of Directors at California State University, Long Beach (CSULB) is the recognized voice for over 37,000 students; and

WHEREAS in response to the COVID-19 pandemic, the United States federal government has signed a stimulus package; and

WHEREAS the stimulus package outlines specific eligibility criteria to receive the money:

- Are a U.S. citizen or U.S. resident alien
- Cannot be claimed as a dependent on someone else's return
- Have a social security number (SSN) that is valid for employment (valid SSN);¹and

WHEREAS parents receive an additional $500 for each qualifying child who:

- Was claimed as a dependent on your tax return
- Was under age 17 at the end of the taxable year
- Is a U.S. citizen, U.S. national, or U.S. resident alien
- Has a valid SSN or an Adoption Taxpayer Identification Number (ATIN);¹and

WHEREAS students under the age of 24 receiving financial aid under FAFSA are still considered legally dependent even if they do not receive financial support from their parents;²and

WHEREAS according to the data provided by the US Bureau of Labor Statistics for the 2018-19 year, 36% of those between the ages of 16 to 24 were working part-time or full-time while enrolled in school;³and

WHEREAS the Pew Research Center reported that in 2018, almost 1 in 4 of young adults age 22 and younger were financially independent of their parents;⁴and

WHEREAS the criteria to receive a stimulus check exclude a large number of college students between the ages of 17-24 who are financially independent, working to pay for all of their expenses but are claimed legally dependent on taxes;⁵and

CALIFORNIA STATE UNIVERSITY, LONG BEACH

- WHEREAS undocumented students without social security numbers and international students on F1 visas are ineligible to receive any of the stimulus checks;⁶and
- WHEREAS international students pay higher fees to subsidize in-state tuition, they must show financial means to afford tuition but as of the crisis, these means to afford tuition for many have dried up and little to no support has been given to international students; and
- WHEREAS the CARES Act includes $12.56 billion allocated to higher education institutions where each institution must reserve 50% of the monies towards student emergency financial aid grants;⁷and
- WHEREAS CSULB is expected to receive over $41 million dollars of which over $21 million is to be distributed to students;⁸and
- WHEREAS CSULB's student population was counted to be 36,846 in the academic year 2018-19⁹, assuming the student population is the same in the year 2019-20, the grant money divided evenly amongst students would amount to about $570 per student; and
- WHEREAS the California Student Aid Commission conducted a survey in 2018-19 that found college students were paying almost up to $2,000 a month for non-tuition costs;¹⁰and
- WHEREAS a study of Basic Needs across the CSU released in 2018 found that over 40% of students were food insecure, with 10.9% having experienced housing insecurity in the past 12 months;¹¹and
- WHEREAS economists have estimated an unemployment rate of 10.5% and 40.6% as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic;¹²and
- WHEREAS due to loss of income the current rates of student housing and food insecurities are likely to be much higher; and
- WHEREAS these emergency financial aid grants are only available to U.S. citizens and eligible non-citizens;¹³and
- WHEREAS these provisions exclude again, the estimated "9,500 CSU students [who] are undocumented and receive AB540 waivers"¹⁴ yearly and the CSU's current population of 16,122 international students;¹⁵now therefore, be it
