5. REPORTS

A. Chair Report:

Magaña reported that the Associated Students, Incorporated (ASI) Beach Pantry had been awarded a grant from the City of Long Beach Community Fund for Food Insecurity.

The event in collaboration with Long Beach Rotary had been successful with over 5,100 pounds of food donated. Donations from the event would be shared with Long Beach City College.

Magaña reminded the committee that the Walk for Wellness activity had been launched for ASI staff.

National Hunger and Homelessness Awareness Week would occur from November 16 to November 20.

During the November 20 ASI Beach Pantry Drive-Thru Pop Up, free flu shots would be offered by Student Health Services (SHS). Prior registration would be required.

C. Management Report:

MacRae announced that the Grocery Games student cooking competition event would be held during National Hunger and Homelessness Awareness Week.

Renovation of the Cardio Theater had been completed in the Student Recreation and Wellness Center (SRWC). Additions had included new Free Motion stationary bikes with Google Maps integration.

Virtual Peer Nutrition Counseling had been performing well in a virtual format.

Incentives for participation in the Virtual Personal Training Program would include fitness equipment rental packages.

Venegas reported that Game Night events would continue into the spring semester.

University Student Union West Patio Wi-Fi hotspot and laptop distribution had been utilized by an average of nine students a day.

The Commercial Services department would be collaborating with Let's Rattle Hunger, a nonprofit organization founded by ASI Senator Milena Gevorkian, to host a collection drive for parenting students on December 4, 2020.

Beach Connection would interview students who utilize the ASI Beach Pantry.

Venegas had met with the founders of 3.50, a nonprofit organization seeking volunteers for meal distribution throughout the community.

ASI Beach Pantry Drive-Thru Pop Up numbers had decreased from prior months. The food bags distributed during the November 20 Pop Up would include Domino's Pizza, fresh vegetables and additional food items to compensate for the Pop Up that would be missed the following week during the Fall Break campus closure.
